

Shri. RIPAN CHANDRA DAS, Subject meter Specialist (Agronomy)
Qualification
1) B.Sc. (Agri.): College of Agriculture, Lembucherra, Tripura 2) M.Sc (Agronomy): University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, Karnataka 3) Master in Rural Development: Tripura University, Suryamaninagar, Tripura
Specialization / Discipline
AGRONOMY
Positions held
Subject meter Specialist: August, 2021- till date at Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Chantail, Unakoti, Tripura
Area of specialization
1. INM in Oil seeds. 2. Soil Microbiology. Major crops focus: Paddy (DSR), Arhar, Greengram, Blackgram and Sesamum
Professional experience
▪ Pigeonpea cultivation introduced in the cropping pattern at Unakoti District. ▪ Introduced off season sesamum cultivation in a year (three times) for secure oil consumption and blackgram cultivation during rabi season through use of rhizobium culture. ▪ Effect of application of Nano-nutrients on crop growth, yield in paddy, blackgram, greengram and sesamum.
Honours and recognition :
1. Young Professional Award received from KALP Society, Mathura, UP. 2. Young Achiever Award received from Agricultural and Environmental Technology Development, US Nagar, Uttarkhand. 3. Young Researcher Award received from Society for Biotic and Environmental Research, Khowai, Tripura for outstanding contribution in the field of agriculture. 4. Best Poster Presentation Award at National Convention of Agricultural Engineers and National Conference on Commercial crops Processing and Value Addition.
Book Published

One (1) Number of book was published.

Research Paper and other publications

Published 12 numbers of research paper in high impact and high NASS related journals. Also published 4 book chapters, 4 review papers and 27 articles and abstracts covering different aspect of Agriculture. Delivered more than 35 nos of radio talks in different aspect of Agriculture.